COMMENT OF THE DAY

Adenauer's Triumph

DR Adenauer deserves the triumph which he enjoyed on Thursday when he persuaded the Lower House of the West German Government to approve the final rending of the Bonn Convention and to ratify the European Defence Com-munity Treaty. The West German Chancellor has laboured unremittingly to this end, and he has had to overcome considerable opposition, some from the vociferous, emotional Communists, but principally from moderate Socialists who sincerely believed for some time that the EDC Trenty constituted a subtle USSR. method of placing shackles on the country's dependence promised under the Bonn Convention. Dr Adenauer is fully entitled to claim that the Bundestag's ratification of the EDC pact "will give the whole work strong impulse." EVEN in 1945, when the war in Europe had ended, flying had its hazards. Flight-Lieutenant Bolton learnt this only too well; it was -May-13th -when -he -had-to crash-land in the South of England, and was badly injured. His aircraft, Typhoon, was completely wrecked, and—a more personal tragedy - his Rolex Oyster disappeared. It was almost exactly four years to the day when a man who lived near where the Typhoon had crashed was digging in his garden. He saw something glitter in the earth; when he stooped and picked it upyes, it was the pilot's watch. The case had corroded and the hands had rusted; but these were incidentals. After four years in the earth the delicate mechanism was still unharmed; the Oyster case had protected it perfectly.

When you remember that this watch, to stay accurate, has to tick exactly 432,000 times a day; and that the lubricating oil is carefully measured to :0001 of a gramme; you can realize the exquisite delicacy of a Rolex movement.

But, you may argue, most watches would never have to undergo a test like that. True! But all watches have enemies -dirt and damp, dust and perspirationand the sort of watch that will stand that fall and those four years can hardly be harmed by slighter hazards. A perfect movement, perfectly protected is what you -want-and what you find in a Rolex Oyster. You find it, too, in the Tudor, the junior member of the Rolex family, which is also protected by the Oyster case.

de This is a true story, taken from a letter written by the pilot in question (em. Flight-Lieutenant W. Bolton, of Urnston, Lancashira) to the Rolen Watch Company. The original letter can be inspected at the Office of the Rolen Watch Company at 18. rue du Marche. Geneva. Switzerland.

A IR-WICK is new. It works in a The new way—not to cover up smells, but to destroy them in the air. You simply unscrew the cap, pull up the wick and put the bottle on a high shelf. As Air-wick evaporates, unwanted indoor smells disappear like magic. Air-wick contains chlorophyll, the wonderful substance that keeps all growing plants fresh and green. It does indoors what nature does outdoorskeeps the air constantly refreshed.

Use Air-wick all over the house, wherever you want a fresh, smell-free atmosphere. Air-wick is indispensable, too, in clubs, hutels, offices and hospitals.

SHOPPING BY NUMBERS?

5000 women bring the day nearer

COON women in Britain may be buying clothes with a made-to-measure fit by code numbers. There will be uniformity of size ranges in the London stores if manufacturers adopt suggestions made at the conference on national sizing convened in London by the British Standards Institution.

Once you know that XYZ is your size code you will be note to buy gurments to fit you exactly in any shop which has that code size in stock.

The conference decided that the old "36in, bust" method of sizing la unsatisfactory since it can apply to garments for young or old, short and plump, or tall and skinny. The codes will grade height and weight and age suitability.

Five thousand women from all parts of Britain have been weighed and measured in a survey which will be used as a guide to working out sizes.

One discovery of the survey: women in the North are fatter and have heavier shoulders than those in the South. Lower income groups are fatter than those in the higher brackets.

And why not? The lady of the house is the one person who krows just what she wants her home to be like. In addition to decorative charm, she wants a home that's easy to clean. And that's what she's going to get from this builder who is working on a project of 117 ranch houses that feature all the things women are constantly wishing

How we gave T is the spring of 1943. Hitler's march has been halted. In the Eastern Mediterranean Montgomery has rolled Rommel in the desert dust. In the West the Joint British-American invasion of North Africa is moving to victory. Already it has been decided that the next blow will be the invasion of Sicily as a stepping-stone into Europe. The double problem facing the Hon. Ewen E. S. Montagu, Naval Intelligence officer, was how to keep the secret from Hitler, and at the same time fox him into believing that the blow would fall instead on Sardinia or Greece. Why not drop a dead man with papers "doctored"—so skilfully that the Germanswould accept them as genuine? Why not float the body ashore in Spain in an area infested by German agents? So a body was selected; the body of a man whose name is for ever secret, who. had died of pneumonia.

He became "Major William Martin, Roya I Marines." An - claborate build-up of personality was begun for the Man Who Never Was.

DE LA BAMA LINES A LOT Of Wood Is Too Much

-Knarf Finds That Out When He Carries It!-

By MAX TRELL

TANARF and Hanid, the 13 shadow - children with turned-about names, went with their friend Tinga-Ling into the forest to gather some firewood.

"If each of us brings back a little pile of wood," Tinga-Ling said as they walked along, "we'll have enough for a fire to keep the house warm until bedtime. Then, in the morning, we'll get some more."

"I think," said Knarf, "that each of us should carry back a lot of wood. Then we'll have enough to keep the house warm for several

Meanwhile, Knarf still had no wood at all, for he had found nothing big enough to see worth carrying home. At length, just as Hanid and Tinga-Ling were about ready to set out for home, Knarf spled a fallen tree.

Much Too Heavy

"There!" he exclaimed joy-fully. "That's a big piece of wood! That's what I'm going to take home!" "Knarf, you can't—it's much too heavy for you!" said Hanid. "It does seem quite heavy," Ting-a-Ling agreed, nodding to Hanid, "but if Knarf feels he can carry it, I'm quite sure that he can."

"Of course I cant" cried Knarf. With that he ran over to the fallen tree and lifted up the fleavy end. He was able to move it all right, but he couldn't keep up with Ting-a-Ling and Hanid. They were able to carry their buildes of wood on their shoulders, while he had to drug life tree along the ground. "It isn't, too heavy," Knart "It's just too long. If it could

The secret police were ordered to make investigations and, after some weeks of activity, unearthed the not very illuminating fact that the Seventeenth used four telephone numbers, all on the same exchange.

"We have two of the numbers, sir," said Inspector. Holdfast to the Deputy Commissioner. "They are 2352 and 7647."

"Two out of four, ch?" said the DC.

"That's right, sir," said Holdfast. "Pointless, the whole set-up seems to me." The Deputy Commissioner's face came suddenly to life. "Pointless, dld you say, Hold-fast?" he dequired. "Give me five minutes and I'll write you down the other two What are theu?

SATURDAY, MARCH 21

BORN on this first day of the incoming sign. Aries, your ruler is Mars and you will show the aggressive, forceful characteristics which are to make you a fighter, pioneer and a leader. You are persistent and at times self-willed. You want what you want, exactly when you want it! This rugged individualism, however, is tempered by such a charming personality that you usually get what you ask for right away without much resistance!

The stars have given you a diversity of talents and you must make use of that self-determination to work out your life well in advance. Otherwise, you are inclined to try to do too many things all at once. Eventually, even your great energy will break down it you continuously keep too many irons in the fire. Your most important tessor is concentration on one objective at a time. It is a hard one for you to learn, but try.

You have a high temper and often show it. Yet you are quick to forgive and want to make immediate amends for any harm or hurt seelings! It it may be said you are lacking in any one thing, it is the saving grace of a sense of humour. Try to cultivate one. Often it can prevent a temperamental outburst and save the day!

Devoted to your own family, still, you are not one to wear your heart on your sleeve. You make close attachments rather slowly, but once a person has been accepted into your small excle of friends, it is for life.

Choose one major objective and relegate all other interest to the hobby status.

You have a better than average head for business and you will probably make a financial success of a career which is not ordinarily considered a money-making one. There is a strong practical streak in your nature—quite an unexpected element in your make-up. And it often expresses itself at exactly the right moment for your rapid advancement toward a goal!

You are not a sombre person. You have a great deal of perronal magnetium and at times are gay, charming and seem to love society. When in one of your gental moods, there is no one more the life of any party. Attractive to members of the opposite sex, you will have countless opportunities to wed. You may not find it easy to settle down to one partner for life but once you have made your selection, there is no more devoted marriage partner. ## CALCUTTA CUP PROSPECTS England Favoured London, Mar. 21. Though the chances of Scotland springing a surprise against England are slight, a crowd of 05,000 is expected to watch the Calcutta Cup Rugby Union match at Twickenham today.

The majority will be looking to the England team to make certain of winning the international championship outright at Empress Hall. for the first time since 1937, for victory would give them the title even if Wales should succeed in Paris nekt week-end.

The confidence appears well placed. England, without approaching the standards of some of the best English teams of 30 years ago, have developed into a competently equipped combination.

Their opponents, on the other hand, are passing through one of the worst playing periods of their history. The Scottish selectors, faced with a mounting list of reverses, now seem resigned to shuffling their slender resources in the hope that eventually they may hit upon a winning side.

The real danger of an Eng- his opponent. lish defeat exists in underestimating this Scottish team, points in the first game. ## Eddie Choong's Decisive Victory Jonson Over London, Mar. 20.

Eddie Choong, 22-year-old law student from Penang, Malaya, tonight entered the men's singles final in the All-England Badminton championships

Choong, runner-up last year to his compatriot Wong Peng Soon, decisively beat Swedish international Nils Jonson in the semi-final by 15-4, 15-5.

Malaya again, as in the final Jordan and WJ. Shaw, 15-3, 15-9. tomorrow, Choong will oppose another Malayan player, H.
